SLEMP LIBELS GEORGE PEERY

Tries to Mislead Voters of Ninth District by Misrepresentation of Facts.

The Big Stone Gap Post of Sept. 27th contains an "exclusive" interview with Mr. Bascom Slemph by one George Roebuck, in which the Congressman, if he is correctly quoted, reiterates the falsehood injected into the letter published in the Roanoke Times following the democratic convention at Bristol. "Mr. Slemph's life," says Mr. Slemph, "is full of service to the communities in which he has lived. He has helped hospitals, colleges, etc., etc., while the Democratic candidate's record on this is a blank." If Mr. Slemph was correctly quoted and if he is not ignorant of the word "blank," he is guilty of an unqualified and inexcusable misrepresentation, published in the leading newspaper of Wise County, with the deliberate purpose of injuring the democratic candidate. This may be less majestic to the Republican god of this district, but it is a fact which can be proved by George Peery's check book and by the testimony of hundreds of witnesses who know his record in this county from his boyhood job as clerk in T. E. George's office to this hour. After graduating from Emory and Henry College, where he holds a record as a student and religious leader unsurpassed in the history of that institution, he began his career as a public school teacher and Sunday school superintendent at Tazewell. As a young man, he was in straightened financial circumstances, but, as was characteristic of him then and is characteristic of him now, he gave his moral and physical energy without stint in high service to his community. Later he studied law and became eminent in his profession. He would have made good in any profession. He is that kind. He has made money, but he is not wealthy. Mr. Slemph charges, and others are helping to broaden the charge, that George Peery is a penurious man; that he turns a deaf ear and a closed hand to every call for cash; that he is a dollar squeezer and a penny hoarder who glances over his gold like a Shylock—stone deaf in all instances to the clarion appeals of charity. The charge is utterly false and malicious in its intent, and the time has come for George Peery's friends to fling it back into the faces of his detractors and, in the name of common decency and fair play, call for a show down or a shut up.

George Peery is a man of fine fibre and real modesty of nature and he shrinks from the vulgarity of a money-bags campaign such as the republican leader and speakers have forced on the people. His friends have too much respect for his pride and dignity of character to inquire into his private affairs or to exaggerate his generosity for political advantage. It is known positively, and it is mentioned without his knowledge or sanction, that in the past few years he has subscribed thousands of dollars to educational, religious, Red Cross and other good causes, among his gifts being a subscription of $2,000.00 to Emory and Henry College. In the Centenary drive his check equalled that of any other citizen of Tazewell with one exception—that of a well-known multimillionaire of this town who has so much money the rats build nests in it. And George Peery's war record is one of indefatigable personal service and generous contributions of money. He was food administrator for Tazewell County under Herbert Hoover; he made scores of speeches in different parts of the County in the various Red Cross and Liberty Loan drives, and devoted himself wholeheartedly to the war-time duties of a patriotic citizen, without thought of reward or financial loss.

Mr. Slemph also has a splendid war record, but it will be recalled that his salary of $7500 a year was not suspended by the government. It is recalled, too, that when the war was over and the faces of the Tazewell boys who didn't come back were remembered, and a movement was started to honor their memory with a memorial of some kind, George C. Peery was the only man in Tazewell who offered to encourage the movement with a cash subscription. This act of his, which is not a rumor but a fact, should seal with shame the lips of those who insinuate that he is not in sympathy with the cause of the boys who fought in the war.

And yet Mr. Slemph makes the unqualified statement that along lines of personal service and generosity the democratic candidate's record is a blank. It is a reasonable presumption that Mr. Slemph reflects the opinion of certain Tazewell republican politicians as to George Peery's character and reputation, and that he believed he was telling the truth; but ignorance is no excuse for misrepresentation for political effect. When a real man finds out he is mistaken he hastens to correct himself. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Slemph will disavow his unjust and unfair attack on a stainless gentleman, who has always stood, stands now, and always will stand on a plane above the foul and false slanders and misrepresentations directed against him in this campaign. George Peery does not know the rules of the game in which Mr. Slemph holds a hand. He is not built that way.

PARAGRAPHS WITH STINGERS.

Mr. Slemph says that George Peery has not offered a single helpful suggestion since he was nominated. Judging by the speeches of the Hasinger squad in this county, the republican idea of helpfulness is that as soon as the successful candidate for congress gets to Washington he shall impose his will on that body, and at once have the civil and criminal laws of Virginia changed in order that Ninth District school teachers may be better paid and that the price of text books may be reduced. Followed to its logical conclusion, the bulk of republicans twaddle thus far handed out promises that by some miracle of statecraft Mr. Hasinger, if elected, will rise in the national House of Representatives, wave his magic wand and nullify the constitutional convention of 1902, raise the salaries of teachers and reduce the price of books, and so change the laws of Virginia as to please all classes of society from the still house to the pulpit. Gentleman of the jury, Geo. C. Peery may be running for congress, but Mr. Hasinger is still running for the Virginia Senate.

Some of the republican campaigners are talking a good deal about the alleged statistical claim that among the States, Virginia is forty-first in the line of illiteracy. They say, in effect: "You poor ignoramus out there with your family of illiterates, don't you know the thieving grafting democrats at Richmond placed you where you are! Vote for Hasinger and you will all be university graduates." Which is proof that the speakers believe that to the shame of illiteracy is added the pathos of idiocy.

Mistress Douglas-Stuart-Roosevelt Robinson and other social hyphenations, of Nu Yawk, Nu Poht and Paris, takes her diamond pointed pen in hand and indites a letter to the Virginia District, telling them how to vote; and the signal honor of giving this violet-scented effusion to the public is awarded to the Mrs. Smith Joneses of Tazewell county may have precious privilege of being the first to peruse it. Holy cats and sufferin' mackerel, what next?

Peeking at George Peery's reputation is about as effective as trying to tear down a granite column with a fusillade of rotten eggs.

Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson, who still is making a strenuous effort to ape her famous brother, graciously informs our Virginia women that if her health would permit, she would leave her social duties and come down here on a talking tour; or, so to speak, to shine as a light on the night of their political darkness. If we remember correctly, this fame-hungry lady led the train load of vaded the West in 1916 to make the New York's four hundred who, during the last year, visited the twenty-one States they visited were democratic. It is hoped Mrs. Robinson's health will improve.

The underground cable from the campaign liars' headquarters is still in good working order.

Spooning on the Graham Grundy boulevard Sunday afternoon by a young couple occupying a tin Lizzie didn't lack much of resulting in an accident. The Lizzie was a mazing bally when a Hudson touring car approached from the rear, taking the gutter to avoid the Ford. Thinking the Lizzie in trouble, the motorist, "and any help" was politely declined by the driver of the coop as the young man was seen releasing his right arm from the waist of the blushing girl by his side—Graham Daily News.

PEERY, PEACE AND PROS.

Premier, W. Va., Oct. 5.—Now is the time that we as loyal American citizens of the Ninth Congressional District, should use every endeavor to elect Hon. George C. Peery. It does not matter as to what your political affiliations might be, but now is the time that you should cast your vote to the best interests of the public.

We see the great walls of The Grand Old Party crumbling down beneath our feet. We hear the cries of oppression from thousands and thousands of tongues. We see the great need of peace and prosperity through out our country. When you come to the polls on that specific day, next November, cast your vote for the best interest of the masses and the classes of the people of this grand Ninth Congressional District and vote for the Hon. George C. Peery. There is no better man on the face of the political map that is more able to serve in this capacity, than our neighbor and loyal friend, Geo. C. Peery.

A few remarks to the farmers. Do you want peace and prosperity to reign throughout the Ninth? of course you do. Then vote for Hon. George C. Peery. Do you want to see the day come when you can get $2.50 for your wheat, and $1.00 for your corn and 16 cents for your cattle, 14 cents for your hogs, 40 cents for your butter, etc., of course you would like to get good prices for your farm products; then vote for George C. Peery. Stop and think one moment what were you getting for your farm products in the year 1919 during the Wilson administration. Compare your prices and your local conditions of your year by neighborhood to those times during the Wilson administration, and this is enough to convince you that there is a great political wrong going on somewhere and right at the polls on that appropriate day next November, when all reasonable thinking people will cast their vote for George C. Peery. It is to your interest that you vote for a man of whom will look well to your interest in the future and give to each individual that political representation of which the classes and masses of the Ninth District should have had years ago.

Hon. George C. Peery is going to be elected as our next Representative. Because, he is a progressive Democrat. We need more business enterprises going. We need railroads that will take our coal and timber, and farm products to the market, we need first class employment for the thousands of young working men. What a fine country we have to be represented by one great and noble

G. O. P. It is no wonder that the Ninth District of Virginia is on the high way to rot and ruin. George C. Peery is the man that will put the "P" in the future prosperity of our town and neighborhood.

HOME DEMONSTRATION NEWS.

The best apple "dish" of all, is a bright, juicy apple fresh from a Virginia orchard. Eat it raw—so that you get all the vitamins in the pulp and skin. There are many appetizing ways of serving apples and since the Governor of our state has set aside the month of October as APPLE MONTH for Virginia let us try some of them. There is an abundant apple crop in almost every section of the state and we want to eat Virginia apples. If you are interested in buying apples write Mr. F. A. Motz, Blacksburg, Va., and he will give you the names of orchards where you will be able to get apples at reasonable prices. 'Tis said that this King of Fruits "keeps the doctor away." Let us try it out.

OUR PREACHERS TAKEN FROM US.

The Methodist Conference, at its recent session in Bristol, made a clean sweep of the preachers in Tazewell. Mr. Lambert goes to Welch; Mr. Kelso to Knoxville; Mr. Ulm to Tennessee. REUNION OF CROCKETT FAMILY.

A reunion of the Crockett family, of which Mrs. C. F. Kitts, at North Tazewell, is a member, was held at the old Crockett homestead now owned by W. E. Peery last Sunday. A large delegation of the representatives of the family were present. Dinner was served on the ground, and music supplied by Frank Kitts and others. The list of those present follows:

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morton, Graham, Va.; Mrs. Nancy Beavers, Graham; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Porter, Bob, Lettie and Ben Jr. of Denver, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Crockett, Graham, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kitts, Mrs. Ruth and Nellie and Ernest, of North Tazewell; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Winburn, Graham, Va.; Mrs. Capitola and Miss Annie Crockett, of North Tazewell; Mr. C. M. Graham, of Graham, Va.; Mr. Ben T. Dailey, of North Tazewell; Mr. Grat Peery, North Tazewell; Miss Irene Harless, Pembroke, Va.; Miss Margaret Keister, North Tazewell; Mr. R. Kemp Morton, Charleston, W. Va.; William J. Crockett, Graham Va.

NEWS NOTES OF JEWELL RIDGE.

Jewell Ridge, Oct. 4.—It has been some time since Jewell Ridge has contributed to the Clinch Valley News, but that is no sign we are all asleep up here. The town has improved wonderfully in the last two years, and we think it is one of the beauty spots of Virginia.

The new road, under the supervision of Mr. J. A. Allison, is progressing nicely, and some time in the future we hope to have a macadam road all the way to our neighboring city, Richlands.

Our school, with Miss Margaret Brown, of New River, as principal, is casting along fine. The other members of the faculty, Miss Ellen Simmerman, of Max Meadows; and Misses Martha and Mary Coulling, of Tazewell.

Mr. C. N. Petty drove to Bristol Sunday and spent the day. Misses Mary and Martha Coulling spent the week-end at their home in Tazewell.

"Uncle" Davy Cartwright and family were visiting in our town Sunday, also Mr. C. B. Orr and family of Richlands.

The newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, have gone to house keeping. The bride was formerly Miss Nancy Davis, of Ivanhoe.

Mr. E. O. Buckner and sister entertained the Misses Anna and Emma Inman and Miss Ann Mabe, of Raven, for the week-end.

SEPTEMBER HONOR ROLL FOR RIVINGTON SCHOOL.

7th grade—Mae Sparks, Bill Beavers. 6th grade—Katherine Lambert, Gratton Lambert. 5th grade—Gertrude Pruett, Clara Pruett. 4th grade—Flora Harman, Charlie Poe, Bob Harman, Thelma Pruett. 3rd grade—Ella White, Floune Poe, Ada Pruett, Floyd White, William Pruett. 2nd grade—Sallie Bandy, Louisa Baldwin, Earl Bandy. 1st grade—Charlie Sawyers, Rufus Baldwin.

Primary—John Lambert, Mayola White, Ruth Lambert, Lena White, Lona Baldwin, Cordella Mitchell, Cecil Harman, Maxwell Bandy. Elizabeth Yost, teacher.

SPEAKING HERE NEXT SATURDAY

Tazewell, Richlands and Pocahontas Will Hear Democratic Side of Campaign Discussed by Able Men.

Hon. Henry C. Stuart, Hon. B. F. Buchanan, Hon. John W. Flaunagan and Hon. George C. Peery will address the voters of Tazewell county Friday and Saturday at the following places:

Stuart and Buchanan at Richlands Friday night, at 8 p. m., and at Tazewell at 1 p. m.

Peery and Flaunagan will speak at Pocahontas Saturday night at 7 o'clock.

The issues of the campaign will be thoroughly discussed and large crowds are expected to hear the exponents of Democracy.

LEBANON TAXI MAN GETS IN TROUBLE.

Raleigh Ashbrook, who has been operating a Buick car between Lebanon and Bristol, was arrested Friday on a warrant sworn out by the wife of Peery Smith charging him with attempted rape.

Mrs. Smith's version of the affair is that she accompanied Ashbrook to Cleveland to try to get in communication with her husband who had left home the day before, and not being able to do so Ashbrook told her to accompany him on his regular trip to meet the car from Bristol. Ashbrook, she claims, assuring her that Mr. Smith would be on the incoming car. On the return to Lebanon, after night a few miles west of town she claims Ashbrook attacked her, but she made her escape and went to the home of Mrs. Jackson and was later accompanied to town by Mr. Bailey Jackson and sister.

Both sides have employed able counsel and a legal battle is certain. Mr. Ashbrook is yet to tell his side of the affair which he claims will differ from that told by Mrs. Smith.

Ashbrook is a married man with a wife and several children, and Mrs. Ashbrook is a very fine woman and people who have discussed the affair have expressed much sympathy for her.

Ashbrook did not secure bond until Tuesday morning when bail commissioner H. L. Kidd admitted him to bail in the sum of $5,000.00.

PEOPLE DON'T FORGET.

When Slemph spoke in the opera house at Abingdon in the Stuart-Slemph campaign several years ago the Virginia Republican, published at Abingdon, said 1,000 people heard him. Now the same paper, trying to reduce the crowd that heard George C. Peery in the same building last week, says the seating capacity of the opera house is only 350. A lie out somewhere.—Lebanon News.

CLOSE THE GATES.

Complaints are being made by the cattle drivers that open gates are causing endless trouble. Many of the gates on the public highway are left open and getting the cattle to the railroad becomes very difficult. Farmers are urged to close the gates and help the drivers.

BOISTEROUSNESS ON THE STREET CAR.

One of the conductors on the street car threatens to quit his job unless certain of the school children discontinuing the practice of trying to take control of running the car in coming to school in the morning and returning in the afternoon. If the boys want to start a "rough house" do it somewhere else in the wish of the Street Railway Company.

DUNIGAN INDICTED BY MERCER GRAND JURY.

Snow Dunigan, of Tazewell county, who appeared here last evening for hearing before "Squire" J. A. Chambers, on a warrant charging him with violating the state prohibition law, met with considerable surprise when he was taken in custody by federal authorities. Dunigan was indicted before the Mercer county grand jury yesterday and a capias was issued for him. In view of this fact "Squire" Chambers did not try Dunigan on the warrant which had been sworn out before him. He was placed in jail to await hearing before United States Commissioner Tanner this morning after which he will be taken to Princeton on the capias issued for him late yesterday.—Bluefield Telegraph of Thursday.

HEAVY DAMAGE BY FIRE.

Robert A. Henkle, a well known farmer of Baptist Valley, sustained a very heavy loss last Tuesday when his barn caught fire and burned. The barn contained a fine team of Percheron horses, 27 loads of hay, one Deering binder, mowing machine and rake, harrow, plows, harness, etc., all of which was destroyed. Mr. Henkle carried no insurance. When the fire was discovered by Mr. Henkle he rushed to the barn, but the flames had spread to such an extent that nothing could be done to save the live stock or the machinery. When the barn door was reached he tried to open and found the two horses down in the stalls, suffocated from the smoke. The loss falls heavily on Mr. Henkle.

HORNEY BROTHERS PUT IT OVER.

The Horney Brothers, twin auctioneers, of Pennington Gap, Va., conducted the sale of the Sam C. Peery estate east of Tazewell Monday, and secured what is considered a good price for the land. The two boys are fine salesman, and carry with them a band that makes things lively. They are securing other properties in the county, which they will offer for sale at an early date.
